Crochet Blanket

A version of Bohemian Blooms Crochet Blanket by Stylecraft Blogstar:

Emma May of Pippin Poppycock

Pippin Poppycock

If you want to find out more about Emma and her design work then do go and have a look at her web site, or her busy Facebook page and group.

I really love this version of my Bohemian Blooms Crochet Along Style project that has been made by my fellow Stylecraft Blogstar, Emma May of Pippin Poppycock.

I always enjoy seeing versions of my designs made in other shades and it was a pure delight to see images of Emma's blanket pop up on Instagram recently. Emma chose to make her blanket using Stylecraft Special DK rather than yarns from the Rowan range and she picked a palette of colours that was close to my original one for some of the shades, but quite different for a few others. I think the result is stunning and so I am really pleased that Emma has very kindly given me permission to share the colours she has used in her version of the blanket.

If you want to make Emma May of Pippin Poppycock's version of the Bohemian Blooms blanket you will need to purchase Jane Crowfoot's original pattern book:

Bohemian Blooms, Crochet Blanket, published by Janie Crow, £12.95.

Many Janie Crow stockists carry yarn colour packs for the original colour way and you might find this one too.

You can find a list of Janie Crow stockists by following this link.

Please note:

This version of the Bohemian Blooms blanket is a personal project and has only been made once, by one crocheter, Emma May, who supplied Janie Crow with the yarn quantities. Please help us and others by letting us know of any problems you may encounter in regards to the yarn substitutions. Janie Crow cannot be held responsible for any errors in yarn usage or any unforeseen problems that may occur when substituting yarns in general.
